DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed on 12 March 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. ***.

It is noted that the claimed limitation of "passing the modified calling party identification number to the called party" is not disclosed in both continuation application (09/844,716) and its parent application (08/723,853). Paragraphs reproduced in pages 10-11 of the Applicant's Remarks just disclose a system and method for restricting or blocking the identity of a caller, one may broadly say calling party identification parameter, to be passed or provided to a called party, and do not explicitly disclose any support to the claimed limitation of "passing the modified calling party identification number (that is identification number of a group associated with the calling party) to the called party". Furthermore, nowhere in the specification that the calling party identification parameter is referred to the modified calling party identification number is found as stated by the Applicant.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 27-33, 35-39, 41-49, 51 and 53-71 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. As to claims 27 and 44-45, the specification fails to disclose any support to the claimed limitation of "passing the modified calling party identification number (that is identification number of a group associated with the calling party) to the called party".
